Lay Chaplaincy Committee . . .

The Lay Chaplaincy Committee is required by the Canadian Unitarian Council (CUC) to recruit candidates for the duties of a Lay Chaplain. These are to conduct rites of passage such as child dedications, marriages, and memorial services, for a maximum term of six years. Lay Chaplains serve primarily members of the Congregation, and also may at their discretion perform rites of passage for non-members.

Since it is mandatory according to CUC Guidelines that Chaplains be limited to a six-year term, it is imperative that our Congregation identify in the near future at least one candidate, and possibly two, to begin training for this very responsible function.

The CUC requires candidates for the Chaplaincy Program to have been active participants in the various tasks which keep the Congregation functioning well.

Our present incumbents have had long and successful experience as Lay Chaplains, and are willing to contribute the benefit of that experience to future Chaplains. The CUC provides various Lay Chaplaincy workshops, which the Congregation will fund for our Chaplains in training. The process typically takes a maximum of two years.

Guidelines for Service Leaders

Your participation in our Program is very important and necessary. Participating in the Program as a service leader is a nice, gentle introduction to public speaking in the Unitarian Congregation of Niagara because it is completely non-threatening.

In other words, don't worry about making a mistake because you won't! As service leader, you have the freedom not to follow the Order of Service to the letter. If you decide you don't want to have a responsive reading, for example, you don't have to have it. There are some elements that are particularly cherished by the members of the congregation, such as the Joys and Concerns, and other elements that are required, such as the Offertory and Announcements, but you still have a good deal of freedom. You can offer up a particularly treasured poem or little story; you can have more than two (2) hymns; you can have an interactive story for children or even a little participatory exercise. On the other hand, if you aren't the most adventurous person or you just like tradition, you can follow the Order of Service and just put in your own selection of hymns and reading.

"Tune in to next month's newsletter for the next exciting instalment!"

Travel

Choice Not Ability

The First Unitarian

Congregation of Toronto, in partnership with World Accord, invites you to help build "kinders" (kindergarten schools) in the mountains of Honduras or reconstruct a Guatemalan community devastated by Hurricane Stan. These are hands-on opportunities to make a difference in the lives of subsistence farmers and their families. Please join a two-week trip: beginning November 4, 2006; January 13 or February 10, 2007. Construction and Spanish language skills are not required but would be welcomed. For more information contact Richard Kirsh (416-767-5837 or richardkirsh@sympatico.ca) or see our poster on your congregation's bulletin board.

Journey with Unitarians to Santa Fe, New Mexico

March 10 - 18, 2007

Pause, reflect, and meditate in the land famous for the light, art, food, museums, galleries, crafts, and the Native Indian and Spanish cultural heritage. Being in historic Santa Fe is a surefire remedy for today's stressful lifestyle.

Visit the two most important Indian sites in New Mexico: Anasazi cliff dwellers (1100s), Chaco Canyon, major center of ancestral Puebloan culture (850 - 1250). See the landscape that inspired artist Georgia O'Keeffe, and do an experiential art project. Walk a labyrinth at Ghost Ranch. Experience a Native Sweat Lodge. Soak in the waters at Ojo Caliente. Meditate at sunrise on a mesa or at sunset in the desert.

Led by Rev. Wayne Walder (leads and teaches meditation) and Beverly Carr of Neighbourhood UU Congregation in Toronto. See www.nuuc.ca for details.

Mug Support

New mugs for our after the service social time have been purchased. They have the CUC logo on one side and the name of our congregation on the other.

In order to help defray the cost to the church treasury for this special purchase it has been suggested that for the price of $5.00 you buy a mug. If you wish the mug could be taken home and of course there are extras at church for your coffee or, you could donate $5.00 for a mug and leave it at church even though we cannot personalize it!

Marie Belliveau and/or Joan Rothman will be happy to collect your donation.
